

Vastu Jyotish—

vastuvidya, vastu science is an ancient vidya which learn us that how the laws of nature affect humen and any place building, animals and other living things.

The foundation of Vastu is traditionally ascribed to the sage mahamuni mayan (in south India), and Vishwakarma in north India.

The Sanskrit word vastu means a dwelling or house with a corresponding noted that that Vastu was one of the greatest architect and town planning expert ever produced by India who lived million of years ago,

Vastu jyotish is our ancient science,

Vastu is a 100% science, based on the five elements(punch mahabhoot) these are-- Air, Water, Fire, Earth,and Sky, and 9 planats, All 5 elements and 9 planats ar installed in our house or building. Second, the maganetic wave of earth also produce good or bad impact on our body as well as buildings. Our body is also design according the rules of vastu, it has two poles north and south, and it is made by 5 elements air, fire, sky, earth.

here is an invisible and constant relation between all the five elements. Thus, the person can improve their conditions by properly designing their buildings by understanding the effectiveness of these five natural forces. Vaastu Sastra combines all the five elements of nature.

If any elements or maganetic field disturbed, we are ill from any type of disease. Same if any elements disturb in our house, building, we can not obtain our aim and loos health, wealth, prosperity and happiness. varius type of trebles come in our life. Hence, if our vastu is well according the rule of nature, we will go to success otherwise we get only problems in our life. Many time, vastu dosh gives death of the house holder.

There are many principles in Vaastu Shastra.

The centrel place of land called brham sthan, meaning the "nuclear energy field". It should be kept unbuilt and open to the sky so as to have contact with the outer space (akasha). This central courtyard is likened to the lungs of the human body.

The 4 corner called ishan (north-east), Agni (east-west), Nairtiya (south-west, Vayavya (west-north),

Devta vaas—

- North-Kubera
- South- Yama lord of death
- East-Indra)
- West-Varuna
- Northeast (Ishaan)

South east (Agni)

South west (Nairitya)- Ruled by ancestors

Centra(brahma sthan)-lord brhma, the creater of univers)

Vaastu energy emanates from the central part of the house (Brahmasthan)

Brham sthan never covered

How can choose a land for residence or business point—

Land should have only 4 corner, more corners gives bad result,

Any big tree, temple or shadow of temple, should not upon the land,

Land should not make on the pond or mudpond.

Water collection should not front of land at south or west.
